

Zlotnikov Sergei Mikhailovich

Was born in Pavlodar, on May 24, 1958

Education:

1976 – entered the Automated and Electric Machinery Faculty of the Tomsk Polytechnic Institute, specialized on electric cables and automated industrial units.

1981 – graduated from the Tomsk Polytechnic Institute

1994 – a student of Human Rights School under Law University in Minneapolis, Minnesota State, the USA

1996 – 1999 –ADILET High School in Almaty, diploma with honors in law

Work Employment:

1975 – 1976 – an electrician apprentice and later an electrician at Chimkent Thermal power station (control and automation equipment)

1981 – 1991 – Almaty heavy machine building plant, in a position of a design engineer for the electric cable bureau under the auspices of Head Designer

1991 – 1993 – deputy director-general of Almaty Managers School

1989 – 1991 – co-chairman of the branch of the All Union Voluntary History-Enlightenment Society MEMORIAL in Kazakhstan

Since 1990 – publications in the national mass media, freelance correspondent of the Vecherny Almaty newspaper.

1992 – 1993 – radio announcer

Since 1993 the Executive Director, and from 1995 – President of the public fund of political-law research center INTEGRAL in Kazakhstan

Since 1995 and up to now – Executive Director of the Transparency Kazakhstan Foundation

Since 1999 up to now- Editor in Chief of Information and Analytical Journal “Legal Reform in Kazakhstan”

Since 2004 – editor-in-chief of the Society without Corruption magazine

Numerous publications related to the development of the civil society, human rights, observance of rights and against corruption in Kazakhstan and abroad

Member of the Scientific-Expert Council of the Agency of the Republic of Kazakhstan on combating the economic and corruption delinquency (financial police)